AT NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS.

MR. DEPEW TO GO ON THE STUMP-SENDING SPEAKERS TO MANY STATES

Chauncey M. Depew was one of the callers yesterday at the hesdquarters of the Republican National Com-Since returning from Europe, Mr. Depew had many opportunities, owing to the enormous ss of private business, to confer with Mr. Carter and his stay yesterday was a long one. As soon as active campaign begins Mr. Depew the stump not only in this State but in others.

ent elections in Maine and Vermont have given intense satisfaction at headquarters. cturns are fully as large as were expected, and, in nder the new system of balloting, exceed the stimates made by those intimately familiar with the policies of those States. The close of the campaigns in those States has released a number of speakers. who are being rapidly assigned to other parts of the An unusually good crop of speakers has ed this year, and they will be beard in all its of the country. Secretary Noble said yesterday his trip through the Northwest he had freheard of the good work which had been sone by General George A. Sherkian. It is unneces y to enlarge upon the popularity of this speaker, probably will do most of his speaking in New-Michigan and Wisconsin. Captain R. H. Lee, acre, started yesterday for his home. There are many torn and tattered emblems preserved by the committee as tokens of victory since 1856, but they have usually tokens of victory since 1850, but they have usually been placed on one side at the end of the campaign. In this case, however, the heroe storm of last week tore the comparatively new banner into tatters, and the new one which was ordered from the works at Lowell will not be here until to-day. Colonel Swords and yesterday: "I was down here early this morning to see that the flag was in proper order, but it falled to earlier?

ROSWELL G. HORR DELIGHTS MT. VERNON. THE WELL-KNOWN ORATOR MAKES ONE OF HIS FINE SPEECHES-A BIG DEMONSTRATION.

The Republicans of Mount Vernon held a ratification their new wigwam last night. The meet ing was never surpassed in enthusiasm in Westchester either Republicans or Democrats. There ere also a few well-known Democrats in the audience probably had the prejudice against the principle of "protection to American industries and American workingmen and American homes" considermodified by the speech of ex-Congressman Roswell G. Horr. He was listened to with interest. His speech was delivered in so able and comprehensive a manner, and interspersed with such degnified wit that he held the audience spell-bound. The meet ing was to dedicate the wigwam built by the Harrison and Reid Campaign Club, at First-st, and Second-ave., and to ratify the nominations of the Republican Convention. Edgar K. Brown presided, and William H. Hathaway acted as secretary. the many present were Mayor Edward F. Brush. John twoord, Charles H. Willson, County Judge Mills, E. B. Maynard, Editor of "The Record"; Corporation Counsel F. W. Glover, George H. Fish, Gerd Martens, S. D. Gliford, James S. Van Court, Colonel Henry Huss, William M. Denman, A. W. Wellender and Edward Howland.

Horr was introduced by the chairman with ew brief remarks, and when the speaker advanced nt of the platform he was received with applause. Among other things he gave his reason voting the Republican ticket. He had been acting party for thirty-six years, and during all at party had been in the wrong. He could not the same of the Democratic party.

say the same of the Democratic party.

"My real reason for supporting Harrison and Reid," he continued, "is because they believe in the same principles in which I believe, and they will represent me correctly in the management of this great Nation. (Applause.) I am a firm believer in a Protective Tariff. The Democratic party of to-day say that such a tariff is robbery and unconstitutional. I believe in looking after the interests of our own Republic first, and the rest of the world afterward. I believe in an honest beliot, a free one, and an honest count. (Applause.) The Democratic party sheers at every attempt to purify the ballot-box, and opposes all efforts to prevent fraud in the returns."

SPEAKER CRISP IS TROUBLED. DEMOCRATIC SITUATION IN ALA-BAMA IS PERPLEXING.

Speaker Crisp, of Americus, Ga., is at the Hogman House. He visited the Democratic headquarters yesferday, and confidently informed the people there that Georgia would go Democratic. This information, however, was not of sufficient importance for Chairman Harrity to issue one of his joyous bulletins to the people of the United States. Later in the day Mr. Crisp strolled into the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He told a Tribune reporter that the situation in Alabama was perplexing the regular Democracy, and he could not predict the outcome. It was rather gloomy, he confessed. The followers of Mr. Kok were all Democrats, however, and, of course, drew votes from the regular party. There was no doubt about that, and these men were angered by the treatment they say they have received from the regular Democrats. sald that Mr. Kolb lived in the district that Colonel Cates represents in Congress, and he thought that the rupture in the Democratic party would be rather serious so far as Colonel Oates's return is concerned. The Speaker inferred from what he had heard that the disaffection among the Democrats in Alabama is based on more substantial grounds than those which the Third party has taken. He intimated that it was the al-leged fraud, as he called it, of the straight-out Demo He intimated that it was the alcrats in counting out Mr. Kolb and his followers which had brought about the break. "Eut," he added, "they are all Democrats, and ! believe they will vote as they have always done before."

In speaking about the condition of the cotton market in Georgia, he said: "I am sorry to say that the prices are lower now than they have been for many

The Speaker was asked what was the cause of it. "It is overproduction, not in the South so much as other parts of the world. Great numbers of bales of Egyptian cotton have come in, and besides, as I have been recently told by those who ought to know, there is a surplus of 2,000,000 bales in the South alone. They were held over from last year's crop. Of course, this large surplus makes the market dull."

Mr. Crisp was asked if there was any attempt being made to give protection to the Southern planter against the foreign producer.

ernment to lend 2 per cent of the value on the crops. Oh! that is not what you mean. No, I never have heard of any organization forming for the purpose of petitioning Congress to put a tariff on cotton. Our petitioning Congress to put a turiff on cotton. Our party does not believe in Protection, and we cannot, of course, prevent overproduction."

Nevertheless, without impagning the truthfulness of Speaker Crisp's statement, those organizations do exist, and there is a settled purpose on the part of thousands of Southern planters to potition Congress to impose a tax, which is so abhorent to Free Traders, upon imported cotton. They find they cannot compete with the cheap labor of Egypt.

Speaker Crisp returns to fee gia to-day, and will remain there until after the State election, which will be held in October. He would not reveal the object of his brief visit to New York. It may be that he fears that the "selid South" may be broken.

PROSPERITY IN THE MOHAWK VALLEY.

There is nothing uncertain or indefinite about the respectous condition of the people in all parts of this country. Ex-Senator Warner about the beneficial effects of the Mckinley tariff law, said yesterday: "My recent trip up home has shown me that the people have prospered wonderfully in the tast two years. Of course, I knew it before, but ngitation of the great issue in this campaign has brought the people up there to realize that it is a protective jurist that has benefited them. They are taking a great deal of interest in the matter. You that all along the Mohawk Valley there are great knitting industries, and in Amsterdam, for instance, there is a great deaf done in manufacturing hurt beyond all would hart them beyond all concep-tion, and they are not ging to vote in favor of it. Of course, politically, matters are quiet, but I observed that the tariff is a subject of deep thought." The Senator said that he intended to attend the Grand Army Encampment inasmuch as he had been elected as a delegate, and after the encampment was over, he would begin speaking.

The summernight's festival of the James G. Blain-Club of Harlem, at the Harlem River Park, on Thurs-day evening, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. COLONEL POORMAN SPEAKS IN NYACK.

Colonel C. L. Poorman, Ohlo's Secretary of State, addressed a big Republican meeting in Nyack last He was introduced by ex-Assemblyman A. Tomkins, who presided. Colonel Poorman elobut argued that present issues were what voters evils incident to a return to wildent banking. subject of the free and unlimited coinage of silver was next discussed. He closed his telling addre by reviewing at length the questions of tin manufacture and restricted immigration.

A RECKLEIS BET OFFERED BY A DEMOCRAT. It is rather early in the canvass for bets to be made, and there is little importance attached to them in any event. It is true, however, that there are bookmakers who are laying even money on the election of the Republican candidates. There are no Demo cratic takers, so far, but a proposition was made yeterday which, on account of its pure, spotless in-nocence, should be given publicity. Charles 8. Thomp-son, of Washington, D. C., said that he would bet $2,500 that Cleveland would carry every Southern State. It should be understood that Mr. Thompson has inside knowledge on this subject from the headquarters of the Democratic National Committee, and is anxious to get some one to take up his offer. Inasmuch as there has always been some uncertainty as to how the Southern States would go in former Na-dional elections, it is the general opinion that Mr. Thompson is taking a great many risks. He refused to make any bet, however, on the general result.

A GROWING CLUB OF FIRST VOTERS.

The First Presidential Republican voters of Harlen will have assumed the strength of a hurricane and will blow the Democrats out of sight. The mass-meeting held blow the Democrats out of sight. The mass-meeting held under the auspices of this club last night at its head-quarters, Nos. 158-160 West One-hundred-and-twenty-nitth-st., was the most successful and enthusiastic in the short career of the organization. Anson B. Cole presided and Lincoln Doty Brown was secretary. The chairman of the Membership Committee reported that the roll of the club now had nearly $5.0, and it was confidently expected that the 500 mark would be passed before November 8. The club has started on the plan of having each of its members bring to each of its mass-meetings at least one Democratic friend, and the result has been that the meetings have been crowded. Floyd B. Wilson was the speaker of the evening last night, and he held the attention of the audience to the last. The gree club did the challenge of Judge Altreld and the Democratic State Committee, that he did not dare define his position on the Compulsory School question, and he has met it holdly. In his speech in Earlylle, in the heart of the Lutheran section of the State, he declared last night unqualifiedly that he favors the Compulsors law. He said he was the uncompromising friend of the free-school system; he was in favor of compulsor; education; he was for the principles involved in comhad nothing to conceal or cover up; he would ceive no one on this or any other question; before he would do that he would keep the company of his self-respect and go into private life. The Governor said he had been informed that there were a number of German Lutherans present who had come a distance to hear his explanation of how the Compulsory School law found a place in the statutes of Illineis. H gave them a concise and rapid history of it. told them the law originated with the friends of edu cation in Chicago. The School Board of that city ap-pointed a committee to draft a bill in regard to compointed a committee to draft a bill in regard to com-pulsory education, as he was informed. The object of the law was a good one; it was to gather up the little children of indifferent and neglectful parents and compel them to attend school of some kind. He be-lieved these children should be educated, and not be-left to grow up in vice and ignorance, to fill the alms-houses, Julis and penitentiaries, in after-life. The issue in Illinois is now clearly drawn.

GOVERNOR FIFER FOR THE FREE SCHOOLS. THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE PROCLAIMS HIS

CAPTAIN KER WITHDRAWS. HE LEAVES THE HID PENNTYLVANIA DISTRICT TO MR. M'ALEER.

Philadelphia, Sopt. 16.-Captain W. W. Ker, who received the regular Democratic nomination in the HIId Congress District of this city, announces this morning that he has withdrawn from the contest. This leaves the field to Congressman McAleer, who received the nomination of independent Democrats, and was indorsed by the Republicans.

Mr. Ker arrived at his conclusion after a confernce, which lasted until an early hour this morning. National Chairman Harrity was present at the con ference, and it is said that it was largely upon his advice that Mr. Ker withdrew.

In a statement Mr. Ker says: "I am induced to take this step for the reason that I am credibly in-formed of the fact, which is now widely known, that the nomination of Mr. McAlest as the regular Re-publican candidate was promised with the understanding that Democratic support should be given to Republican candidates for the Legislature in the IId. Hid, IVth, Vth, XIIth and XVIIth Representative Districts. While I have reason to hope and believ that if I remained in the field I would be successful at the polls. I am unwilling to confinue in the con at the poils, I am unwining to confinue in the con-test, if by so doing the Democrate of the State shall be deprived of several Democratic members of the Legislature. If the terms of the bargain made with the Republican managers for Mr. McAleer's nomina-tion are carried out, and the Democrate candidates for the Legislature are defeated, it will be easy to determine who will be responsible for this treachery.

Harrison is as strong there now as he was in 1888, when there were no apparent differences among the Democrats. Cleveland's four years of retirement has not strengthened him any. The tariff plank of the party is troubling the Eastern leaders, and they are endeavoring to apologize for its radical features. Mr. Cleveland will probably hedge somewhat on that question."

ANOTHER BOOMING CLUB IN HARLEM Another club has been added to the already long list of Repullican associations which have been ganized in Harlem since the campaign opened. On Thursday night a number of men prominent in the 2,415 Second-ave, and organized the East Harlem Re-publican Club and led off with the comfortable membership of 200. This is one of the strongest De cratic districts in the city, and the fact a Republican club can start there with such a roll of membership is highly encouraging and is another one of the many straws which show the direction of the wind in Harlem. The following are the officers of the club: Charles Tietjen, president: Joseph Belknap, first vice-president; John McCristie, second vice-president; Mr. Sarber, financial secretary; William Olcott, corresponding secretary; William Jones, treasurer, and Frank Travis, sergeant-at-arms.
